Number 11

Weekly Overview

Last week saw the release of all of the House and Senate proposed budgets (operating, transportation and capital), ongoing committee hearings and executive sessions in policy and fiscal committees, and floor action.

This upcoming week will see the next key milestone of session of opposite house policy cutoff on Wednesday, April 3rd. All bills that have been referred to a policy committee in their opposite house must pass out of committee by that day or they will be considered dead (unless they are deemed Necessary to Implement the Budget (NTIB)). Any bills that do make it out of committee in time will either be referred to a fiscal committee or to the Rules committee for further consideration.

At this point over 2,300 bills have been introduced this session:

- About 1,500 bills made it through the house of origin policy cutoff
- 1,010 bills made it through the house of origin fiscal cutoff
- 684 bills made it through house of origin cutoff. You can see a list of bills still alive here (this does not count bills that have been deemed NTIB).

Upcoming Dates of Note:

April 3, 2019	Last day to read in committee reports (pass bills out of committee and read them into the record on the floor) from opposite house, except House fiscal committees and Senate Ways & Means and Transportation committees.
April 9, 2019	Last day to read in opposite house committee reports (pass bills out of committee and read them into the record on the floor) from House fiscal committees and Senate Ways & Means and Transportation committees.
April 17, 2019	Last day to consider (pass) opposite house bills (5 p.m.) (except initiatives and alternatives to initiatives, budgets and matters necessary to implement budgets, differences between the houses, and matters incident to the interim and closing of the session).
April 28, 2019	Last day allowed for regular session under state constitution.

 After the 94th day, only initiatives, alternatives to initiatives, budgets and matters necessary to implement budgets, matters that affect state revenue, messages pertaining to amendments, differences between the houses, and matters incident to the interim and closing of the session may be considered.

students with disabilities and their families with language directing, subject to state funding, the Office of the Education Ombuds to serve as the lead agency to provide information and training regarding the special education services and disability accommodations processes. Describes the content of the training program and its development process. Permits the Office of the Education Ombuds to charge for delivery or use of the training program. (4) Removes requirements related to: Local special education advisory committees and least restrictive environment reports. (5) Maintains recognition of school districts performing well on indicators related to students with disabilities receiving special education services, but uses the Washington achievement index indicators, rather than the system-wide performance goals or measurements. Removes language requiring that districts receive enough awards to display in each school. (6) Maintains the following transition planning requirements: (a) If requested, a representative from the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation must attend the Individualized Education Program meetings of students in special education to assist with transition planning; and (b) students and parents must be provided with information about the Washington Achieving a Better Life Experience Program. (7) Maintains the requirement that special education cooperatives must apply for program approval every five years. (8) Removes the requirement that the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI) contract with a neutral party to facilitate an advisory group that must report to the Legislature with its activities and recommendations to improve outcomes for students in special education, and instead tasks the OSPI with convening an advisory group to design a coordinated and responsive system for meeting the needs of students with disabilities, and report recommendations to the Legislature. (9) Allows five local education agencies to seek temporary waivers from certain laws in order to execute inclusive education implementation plans, and requires quarterly progress reports to the advisory group. (10) Requires that the OSPI establish, by September 1, 2021, a technical assistance program on inclusive education practices and improving outcomes for students with disabilities. (11) Directs the OSPI to identify, and report biennially on, meaningful indicators of progress toward eliminating within ten years the most significant barriers to success, and disparities in outcomes, for students with disabilities or special needs.

The bill address rape kits need by outlining time frames for testing, provides $13 million in funding and places a moratorium on the destruction of unreported kits. It is a comprehensive bill that furthers the work WA state has done to address testing of rape kits and enhancing sexual assault responses. The bill was heard in Senate Law and Justice on March 18. All parties who testified spoke in support of the bill. The bill has a $13 million fiscal note to pay for a renovation at the Vancouver crime lab to make it a high frequency lab. This will allow for expedited testing of rape kits. If passed, the bill will create time frames for testing and provide monies for the lab renovation, scientists and equipment at the Washington State Patrol Crime Lab. It also funds law enforcement training on victim notification. The bill places a moratorium on the destruction of kits belonging to survivors not yet ready to press charges (unreported kits) and enumerates rights of sexual assault victims. If passed, the backlog for our state could be eliminated by 2020. The was heard in Senate Ways and Means on March 28.

SB 5649 eliminates the statute of limitations for most sex offenses against children 16 years of age and under. It will also provide longer periods of time to prosecute most other felony sex offenses. It revises the third-degree rape statute to eliminate a requirement that survivors must clearly express their non-consent by their words or conduct. The bill was heard in the House Public Safety Committee on 3/20/19. There has been talk on the House side that an amendment with a provision for sentencing adults who committed a crime as a juvenile but would be sentenced as an adult may be introduced. An amendment would not achieve the desired result and takes away from the intent of the bill which is to better meet victims needs and increase community safety. The crime victim service community, prosecutors, Legal Voice, and WAPA oppose amendments to this bill. The next step is for the bill to be voted out of committee.
