Commission Business (8:30 – 9:00 am)

The Commission received a briefing on the projects to be reviewed.

Westlake Park (9:00 – 10:30 am)

The Commission deliberated over the proposed changes to Westlake Park. The presenters provided an update from their March 6, 2025 presentation that provided additional information on the proposed changes to portions of Westlake Park.

The following people were presenters:

- Beth Purcell, Seattle Parks Foundation
- Andy Mitton, Berger Partnership
- Ben Handziak, Seattle Parks
- Andrew McConnico, Seattle Parks

The following people attended:

- Rebecca Bear, Seattle Parks Foundation
- Paulina Arango, Berger Partnership

The commission focused their discussions on 5 points:

1. Project Scope and Program –
2. Design Response to Site Conditions
3. Design Response to Equity in Public Space and Programming –
4. Materials, Plants, Lighting, and Artwork
5. Post FIFA vision

The Commission did not take any formal action. They will prepare a letter documenting their concerns.

Yew Alley vacation (10:30 – Noon)

The Commission received a presentation on the proposed public benefit package for their proposed alley vacation.

- Shilpe Karve and Kevin Cleary, Bayliss Architects
- Molly Lawrence, VanNess Feldman Architects

The following people attended:

- Beverly Barnett, SDOT
- Kelsey Timmer, SDOT

- Amy Gray, SDOT

The presenters highlighted three main elements of their public benefit package:

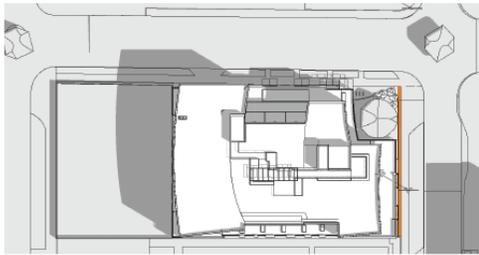

1. Installation of new sidewalks on N 87th Street from the project site west to 1st Avenue NW
2. Increasing sidewalk widths on Palatine Avenue N and 1st Avenue NW
3. Restoration and enhancement of the conservation drainage easement to the west of the development site.

The following table provide more detail on the proposed public benefit package:

The commission voted 9-0 in support of the public benefit package. The approval was conditioned on a subcommittee review of the proposed fencing system in front of the conservation easement, with a focus on integrating artistic elements into its design.

WSLE – discussion with City staff (1:00 – 3:15 pm)

The following people attended:

- Sara Maxana, SDOT
- Vera Giampietro, SDOT
- Saranya Gujuluva, SDOT
- CJ Holt, SDOT
- Lindsay King, SDCI
- Jason Hampton, Sound Transit
- Lorelie Williams, WSP

The meeting was a round table discussion to evaluate how the Commission and City staff coordinated with each other during the Preliminary Engineering reviews for the West Seattle light rail segment in 2024. The goal is to refine the review process for the Preliminary Engineering reviews for the Ballard extension and for regulatory reviews of stations and guideways.
